

Pantages Playhouse Theatre Late Night Vigil – New Location!

New for the late night Vigil, the Haunted Winnipeg team has permission to investigate Pantages Playhouse Theatre. Pantages opened on Feb 9, 1914 and was quite lavish in its interior and was the finest theatre in Winnipeg. It was built by Alexander Pantages to be the hub of the Vaudeville chain he ran in Canada and the United States. The theatre flourished and has seen many famous names on its stage including: Buster Keaton, Laurel and Hardy, Houdini, Felix the Mind Reading Duck, Ella Fitzgerald, Buddy Rich, Ray Brown, Elvis Costello, Duran Duran, the Guess Who, and many more! We have been told many ghost stories about the theatre over the years and are eager to investigate further. Join the Haunted Winnipeg guides and spirit medium for an evening of history, communicating, and experiments to see if the stories are true. Dowsing rods and table tipping will be used along with the tools of the trade that include: pendulums, EMF, video, cameras, and digital recording devices.
